

Jainam Jain, Information Technology Student

Mumbai • +91 79779 63474 • jainamjain1116@gmail.com • github.com/jain44 • linkedin.com/in/jainam-jain-746188263

PROFILE

Third-year B.Tech IT student at TCET (CGPA 9.92) with experience in AI/ML, full-stack development, and graphic design. Builds products solving real problems — legal-tech, fintech, and cultural apps. Currently Design Director at TCET ACM Student Chapter.

EDUCATION

|                |                                                                                                        |            |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 2024 – Present | B.Tech – Information Technology   Thakur College of Engineering and Technology                         | CGPA: 9.92 |
| 2024 – Present | Minor Degree – Artificial Intelligence (Specialization)   Thakur College of Engineering and Technology |            |
| 2024           | Class XII – Science   Nirmala Memorial Foundation College, Mumbai                                      |            |
| 2022           | Class X – ICSE   LR & SM Vissanji Academy, Mumbai                                                      | 95%        |

EXPERIENCE

|                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                  |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Jun 2025 – Jun 2026 | Design Director• Lead design team producing event posters, branding materials, and social media creatives for Mumbai's largest student tech chapter.• Maintain visual identity and consistency across all chapter communications. | TCET ACM Student Chapter, Mumbai |
| Nov 2025 – Present  | Graphic Design Intern• Designed social media graphics and digital creatives for government awareness campaigns.                                                                                                                       | Sugamaya Governance, Mumbai      |

PROJECTS (Selected — 11 total, full list on GitHub)

|                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AI / ML                                                                                                                                        | AI Fracture Detection ModelDeep-learning model detecting bone fractures from X-ray images for faster, more accurate diagnosis. |
| Legal Tech                                                                                                                                     | JusticeAIMultilingual web app bridging India's legal access gap with citizen-facing guidance in native languages.              |
| Fintech                                                                                                                                        | RupeeRealityShows how daily spending (Zomato, Netflix, Uber) compounds over 20 years at 12% SIP returns.                       |
| Business Sim                                                                                                                                   | Agentic AI Business Strategy SimulatorLLM-powered platform for business diagnostics, simulations, and automated reporting.     |
| Culture                                                                                                                                        | SamyakWeb app sharing Jain spiritual teachings through interactive, accessible learning experiences.                           |
| 6 additional shipped projects (web apps, tools & AI experiments) — full portfolio at github.com/jain44 |                                                                                                                                           |

SKILLS

|                |                                                                                 |
|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Technical      | Python • C/C++ • Java • JavaScript • HTML/CSS • Git • NumPy • Pandas • LLM APIs |
| Tools & Design | VS Code • Arduino • AutoCAD • Adobe Illustrator • Figma • Canva                 |

CERTIFICATIONS

|                         |                                                        |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| • Data Vision Boot Camp | • AI for Entrepreneurs (Data Analysis)                 |
| • Data Analytics — IBM  | • Python 101 for Data Science                          |
| • Google Analytics      | • Spoken Tutorial Project — IIT Bombay |

ACHIEVEMENTS & LEADERSHIP

- Selected for Final Round — Saavishkar 2026 Hackathon
- Ranked 19th Nationally — NL Mathematics Olympiad (NLMO) • 6th Position, Data Vision Competition
- Presented Research Paper at Multicon 2025 • Represented Maharashtra at National Level in Handball
- Elected Class Representative, IT Department – TCET